

What is NHRA?

We are the Northland's premier place for HR professionals and students to network, share ideas, have fun, and keep current on the latest topics and trends.

The Northland Human Resource Association (NHRA), established in 1988, has a vast and inclusive membership of Human Resource Professionals in the Duluth-Superior and surrounding areas. NHRA is an affiliate of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), the largest professional Human Resource organization in the world.

Program Speaker-Request for Proposal:

We are currently accepting proposals for our 2022 Monthly Educational Meetings. Programs are typically held on the second Thursday of the month during the lunch hour.

We are seeking topics that are timely and important to HR and business professionals in the community. These topics will be used to certify education credits with the Society of Human Resource Management and Human Resource Certification Institute.

PRESENTER RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Provide high quality educational presentations.
2. Commit to being present and speaking at the event for which a proposal is submitted.
3. Avoid any "sales" or "marketing" techniques.
4. Provide all handouts, if any, for NHRA members.
5. Bring a laptop to present from, along with the necessary cords, adapters, clicker, laser pointer, etc.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The following criteria will be used to select NHRA presenters:

1. Presenters must have expertise in the topics being presented and demonstrate their ability to tailor their session to meet NHRA member needs.
2. Presenter qualifications—must have experience in presentation and workshop facilitation.
3. Program design and materials must be high quality and clearly organized.

4. Presenter must be willing to volunteer his/her time and resources to design and deliver the presentation. Please
